Terms & Conditions to use the Distance Learning Platform

Dear Student

Your use of the distance learning platform and tools that have been adopted by ALDAR University College gives you the privilege of accessing information and data related to the educational process and all the supporting tools.

The used platform and tools give you the ability to communicate directly and indirectly via visual communication with the administrative and academic staff and your peers in learning. It is your duty to follow privacy protection policies for all of the above tools, which include educational materials, recorded and direct lectures, classmates' interventions and data for classmates and lecturers.

Publishing or saving anything other than for educational goals, or resending what you get through this educational process without formal written permission from the authorized person is an explicit violation of the terms and conditions of use of the educational platform.

It is also of vital importance to maintain the confidentiality of the images and videos for all who use visual and audio communication (video/audio) and backgrounds of the educational settings. You shall not save, publish, or forward (send) any of the above materials or settings to any official or unofficial third party.

The UAE laws criminalize anyone who publishes information or intellectual properties without written permission, where:

- Article 31 of the Constitution of the United Arab Emirates guarantees the confidentiality and freedom of communication by mail, telegraph or other means of communication.
- Article 378 of the Criminal Code of 1987 states that publishing personal data related to the lives of individuals or family life is a crime punishable by imprisonment and a fine.
- Law No. (12) of 2016 amending Federal Decree Law No. (5) of 2012 is applicable to combat information technology crimes and others.

Dear Student,

Reading this terms and conditions means you are aware and you agree to protect the privacy of the distance learning platform in all its aspects, and that your violation of what the above-mentioned is subject to legal accountability.
